

HANKSGIVING BRUNCH

Guests can usher in the festive fall harvest season with The Lobby's annual Thanksgiving Brunch on November 26, 2020. While this year's experience will be a bit different, the Thanksgiving spirit is still present at The Peninsula Chicago. The brunch will feature a combination of buffet and plated menu options. The buffet will feature traditional Thanksgiving Day preparations and select food stations, including: a carving station, salads and appetizers, seafood, and a lavish dessert station. Plated menu options will be offered as well, including Eggs Benedict, Truffle pasta and more. Shared side options will also be offered. Three seatings will be available in The Lobby and Avenues.

THANKSGIVING TO-GO

For those looking to spend the holiday at home, The Peninsula Chicago is offering "Thanksgiving To-Go," featuring an elegantly prepared Thanksgiving dinner for 6 to 10 guests. The meal comes complete with a whole Heirloom turkey or Herb Striploin. A cheese and charcuterie appetizer platter start the celebration, followed by the traditional holiday meal with hearty side dishes including mashed potatoes, gravy, fennel chicken sausage and sage stuffing, a variety of vegetable side dishes, winter green salad with blood orange dressing, and a selection of rolls. Traditional pies and handmade truffles round out the festive meal.

An individual turkey dinner for one is also available. Guests can also purchase whole pies featuring pumpkin, apple crumble or pecan fillings, and individual tarts in the same flavors.
