Serving Chicago Great Seafood for a Century

1917, Troha's opens as a West side bar. Offering a Stein of beer and a Bowl of Chili for a Nickel. Soon becoming a local stop for Benwyn farmers until prohibition laws forced the business to change course.

1920, Fish House
Abundant Lake Michigan Chubs, Eel, Herring and Smelt were sold fresh or smoked supplying locals & grocer's with Troha's Smoked Fish.

1930 Depression
At the same time Chili meat became expensive and limited a new item appeared on the markets "Shrimp"
Because northerners never saw Shrimp before it was given away as a hand out. A few years later after a trip to New Orleans the idea of deep frying Shrimp was introduced to Chicago.

1940's Commercial deep fryer technology improvements now made it possible to begin selling deep fried products on a larger scale. By 1959 almost half the sales at Troha's were Deep fried including a new item "Carry-Out Fried Chicken". Troha's perfected the quick deep frying method six years before Chicken unlimited and KFC.

1960's Deep Fry Everything
Shrimp, Lake & Ocean Perch, Halibut, Red Snapper, Cod, Smelt, Pollock, Haddock, Walleye, Salmon, Frog Legs, Squid, Trout, Sole, Catfish, Pork Tenderloins, Veal Cutlets, Lobster & King Crab. New appetizers emerged. Shoestring French Fries hit the scene, Hush Puppies, Crab Cakes, Potato Pancakes. Deep Fried Desserts like Apple and Cherry pies, & fried Peach dumplings.
With an ever expanding deep fried menu the fresh and smoked fish counter slowly began to shrink out of existence and by the 1980's Troha's closed it's smoke houses.

Current Day. With well established favorites & traditions the 4th generation Troha's are committed to reproducing our original recipes using the original ingredients
